

[This is a template for the author's cover letter to the Editor-in-Chief. Replace all bracketed text before submission.]

[Date]

Dr. Aakash Kembhavi

Editor-in-Chief

International Journal of Ayurveda

editor@internationaljournalofayurveda.org

Dear Dr. Kembhavi,

Please find enclosed our manuscript entitled “[Manuscript Title]”, which we would like to submit for consideration as a [Article Type — e.g., Original Research Article] in the International Journal of Ayurveda.

[Briefly state, in 2–4 sentences: the core question or problem addressed, the key finding(s), and why the work is a meaningful contribution to the journal's scope.]

We confirm that this manuscript is original, has not been published previously, and is not under consideration elsewhere. All authors have approved the manuscript and agree with its submission to the International Journal of Ayurveda.

[If applicable:] This study was approved by [Ethics Committee name], approval number [xxx], and [if a clinical trial] is registered with [registry name] under registration number [xxx].

We declare [no conflict of interest / the following conflicts of interest: specify]. Funding details are provided on the Title Page.

We suggest the following potential reviewers for this manuscript, based on their expertise in this area [optional]:

1. [Name, affiliation, email]

2. [Name, affiliation, email]

Thank you for considering our manuscript. We look forward to your response.

Sincerely,

[Corresponding Author Name]

[Affiliation]

[Email / Phone]